St. James's, April 3.

THE following Address of the Freeholders of the County of York, has been presented to the King by William Danby, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, accompanied by their Graces the Dukes of Leeds, Montagu and Northumberland, the Marquess of Carmarthen, Earl Percy, Earl of Salisbury, Earl Fauconberg, Earl of Ailesbury, Lords Grantham, Hawke, and Rawdon, Sir Charles Thompson, Bart. Mr. Attorney General, Edwin Lascelles, Esq; and many other considerable Gentlemen of the County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of York, alarmed at the present distracted State of Public Affairs, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Assurances of our unfeigned and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Convinced that the very Existence of our excellent Constitution depends on the Preservation of the due Balance of Power, wisely placed in the different Branches of the Legislature, we declare ourselves equally solicitous to maintain the legal Prerogatives of the Crown, and the just Privileges of the Two Houses of Parliament.

We cannot too strongly reprobate the late Attempt to seize the Property and violate all the Chartered Rights of the East-India Company; the enormous Patronage of which would have produced an Influence equally destructive of the Prerogative of the Crown and the Liberties of the People.

To remove Ministers who made such an Attempt we deem to be a just Exertion of your Majesty's Prerogative; and, under the peculiar Circumstances of the Case, we think your Majesty acted with equal Justice, by retaining your present Ministers until an Appeal to your People could be made: Imperfect as such an Appeal to the Constituent Body must ever be under the present manifold Defects of our National Representation, we still conceive the Calling of a New Parliament to be the only true constitutional Measure which your Majesty in your Royal Wisdom can adopt, to settle the present Differences between the several Branches of the Legislature.

William Danby, Sheriff.

York, March 25, 1784.

The following Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Surrey, has been presented to the King by William Aldersey, Esq; High Sheriff, accompanied by the Honourable William Norton, Sir Joseph Mawbey, Bart. William M. Godschall, Anthony Dickins, John Evans, and William Parker Hamond, Esqrs. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Surrey, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with unfeigned Assurance of our loyal and zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government. In a Reign eminently distinguished for Mildness and Equity, we have seen, with equal Concern and Disappointment, the legal Prerogative of the Crown attempted to be invaded, and the Chartered Rights of our Fellow Subjects violated.

In a Situation so adverse to the Tranquillity and Welfare of this Country, we acknowledge with Gratitude your Majesty's paternal Attention to avert such Evils, by a seasonable and salutary Interposition of that Prerogative, which the Constitution has so wisely and beneficially placed in your Majesty's Hands; And we beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, for having formed and supported a Ministry, whose Character, Ability, and Conduct warrant your Majesty's Confidence, and, we trust, will answer the just and reasonable Expectations of your People.

In these Sentiments we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firmest Support in the Exercise of all your just Rights, and of our full Persuasion from Experience, that your Majesty will preserve inviolate, in every Part, that excellent Constitution we have received from the Wisdom of our Ancestors, and are zealously desirous may be transmitted to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Devon, has been presented to the King by Thomas Lane, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Devon, assembled at the Castle of Exeter on the 10th Day of March, 1784, in Pursuance of Public Notice given by the Sheriff for a Meeting of the County, at the Request of many respectable Freeholders.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most cordial Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Reverence for the Constitution as established at the glorious Revolution.

At a Time when the Country is justly alarmed by the calamitous Distractions of Party, we think it our Duty

Palace Mawson
28 April 10 o'Clock

Duty to expreſs our moſt humble and grateful Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Firmneſs in appointing to and continuing thoſe in the Conduct of Public Affairs, who have endeavoured to ſupport and maintain your juſt and undoubted Prerogatives againſt all Attempts to ſhake the Throne and endanger the Liberties of theſe Kingdoms.

We are fully convinced, that the Stability and Security of Government, and of that happy Conſtitution under which we live, depend upon the Maintenance of the Rights, Privileges, and Prerogatives of the Three Eſtates of the Realm, diſtinct from and not to be impaired by each other: And we truſt, that by the wiſe, conſtitutional, and permanent Efforts of your Majeſty's Counſels, ſuch Meaſures will be adopted and purſued as will tend effectually to eſtabliſh the Glory and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign, and to ſecure the Intereſt of all your Dominions.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Oxford, has been preſented to the King by Arthur Anneſley, High Sheriff of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, gratefully ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the moſt zealous and affectionate Declarations of our unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government. At a Time when the Country is juſtly alarmed at the Invaſion of Chartered Rights, and the Calamities and Diſtractions of Party, we think ourſelves bound in Duty to expreſs our moſt humble and grateful Acknowledgments to your Majeſty for your Removal of your late Miniſters, and your Firmneſs and Wiſdom in maintaining your juſt and undoubted Prerogatives againſt the late daring and unconſtitutional Attempts to ſhake the Throne, and to endanger the Liberties of this Kingdom. We are fully convinced, that the Stability and Security of Government, and the Preſervation of our Lives and Properties, and of that moſt glorious Conſtitution under which we live, depend upon the Maintenance of the Rights, Privileges, and Prerogatives of the Three Eſtates of the Realm, diſtinct from and unimpeached by each other. And we beg Leave moſt humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady Support in all Meaſures conducive to the Honour of the Crown and the true Intereſt of this Kingdom, and the Preſervation of the Conſtitution.

[Signed by 1343 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Somerſet, has been preſented to the King by Sir John Trevelyan, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Somerſet, approach your Throne in the preſent alarming State of Publick Affairs, to expreſs a firm Confidence in your paternal Care and Attention for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, as committed to you by the Rules and Ordinances of our excellent Conſtitution.

A Government founded in Law, Sire, has been long the Pride of Britain and Envy of the World: This Law has placed the executive Power in the King, as ſupreme Magiſtrate; and has given him the ſole Appointment to all the Offices of the State: It likewiſe inveſts him with Prerogatives ſufficient for the due Exertion of Authority on all Contingencies; and does in its Letter, as well as Spirit, clearly define the Extent of the executive and legiſlative Branches of Government: We cannot, therefore, view a Deſign to trench on any Part of this Depoſit with Indifference, nor behold an Attempt to violate the Chartered Rights of our Fellow Subjects, without feeling the deepeſt Apprehenſions; and an Application to your Majeſty to diſmiſs Miniſters, without aſſigning any Neglect or Miſdemeanor, appears to us neither candid, politick, nor juſt.

Impreſſed with theſe Ideas, Sire, we humbly hope and confide, that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to continue your Superintendance and Protection to the whole Tenor of our excellent Conſtitution; and therein to the Rights of your People, the Privileges of your Parliament, and the legal Prerogatives of your Crown; and equally defend them all againſt every Deſcription of Men, whoſe Conduct may indicate a Tendency to involve the State in the Horrors of Anarchy and Confuſion: And herein we truſt your Majeſty cannot fail to receive the Confidence and Support of every loyal and conſtitutional Subject in your Dominions.

That your Majeſty may long enjoy the Fruits of theſe your patriotic Endeavours for the Publick Weal, by receiving every Proof of Gratitude and Reſpect to your Perſon and Government, is our moſt ardent Wiſh and Deſire.

And. Gay, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Denbigh, has been preſented to the King by Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, beg Leave to expreſs our warmeſt Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and your Illuſtrious Family, and the higheſt Veneration for that Conſtitution of Government which was eſtabliſhed in this Country at the Revolution. Impreſſed with ſuch Feelings, we truſt we may be permitted, with the utmoſt Deference, to lay before your Majeſty our heart-felt Concern at the Diviſions which have taken Place in your Majeſty's Councils; fully convinced that nothing but a broad, firm, efficient, popular Adminiſtration, ſuch as may deſerve the Confidence of every Branch of the Legiſlature, can reſtore this falling Country to her former Glory. We moſt humbly pray that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to liſten to the Voice of your faithful Commons, and, by complying with their Wiſhes, place your People in that honourable and envied Situation, by which they have been hitherto diſtinguiſhed from other Nations.

And your Petitioners ſhall ever pray.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Ayr, having been tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Sydney,

Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by his Lordſhip been preſented to the King; Which Addreſs His Majeſty has been pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Ayr.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, think it our Duty to addreſs your Majeſty on the preſent State of the Nation, to which we are the more encouraged, that in an Anſwer to thoſe who now repreſent your People, your Majeſty has been pleaſed to pay a gracious Attention to the honeſt Sentiments of your People themſelves.

We beg Leave, in this Addreſs, uninfluenced and uninſolicited to renew our ſincere Aſſurances of Loyalty; and while we declare our determined Reſolution to ſupport your Majeſty's undoubted Prerogative to chuſe your Miniſters for the executive Part of our Government; we acknowledge our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Regard for the Public Good, in appointing, and continuing in your Service, Men, in whoſe Virtue and Abilities, your People have the greateſt Confidence.

With Regret and Indignation we have obſerved the National Councils troubled by the deſperate Efforts of a violent Faction, and a Waſte of the Vigour of Oppoſition which ſhould be reſerved to fruſtrate deſtructive Meaſures, ſuch as that audacious Eaſt India Bill, which, if it had been allowed to paſs into a Law, would at once have violated the Security of Chartered Rights, created a new Power paramount in Effect to that of the Crown, reduced your Majeſty's Authority to a mere Name, and ſubjected your People to an unconſtitutional Dominion.

Permit us, Sire, to ſay that a loyal Addreſs from the extenſive Diſtrict of Ayrſhire, may claim particular Conſideration, becauſe it is one of thoſe Weſtern Shires of Scotland, which, in Times very different from your Majeſty's benignant Reign, reſiſted Tyranny in one Branch of the Conſtitution, undiſmayed by the Riſk of Life and of Fortune.—Truſting that we inherit the Firmneſs and Intrepidity of our Forefathers, we are equally ready to reſiſt Tyranny in another Branch. Our Principles are uniform to withſtand Encroachment in whatever Quarter, and maintain the juſt Balance of our admirable Monarchy, limited by progreſſive Wiſdom and Spirit to a full Conſiſtency with rational Freedom.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at a General Meeting held at Ayr, this 17th Day of March, 1784.

Craufurd, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Scarbrough, has been preſented to the King by William Danby, Eſq; High Sheriff for the County of York, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Scarbrough.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave, at this alarming and critical Juncture, to approach your Majeſty with the ſincereſt Expreſſion of our moſt firm and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family; and at the ſame Time moſt gratefully to acknowledge your Majeſty's paternal Regard to your People's Welfare, manifeſted in diſmiſſing from your Councils thoſe of your late Miniſters, whoſe bad Syſtem and ill Management have brought this once flouriſhing Nation almoſt to the Verge of Ruin, and thereby rendered themſelves deſervedly odious.

We hope your Majeſty has been wiſely directed in the Choice of your preſent Miniſters, eſpecially of the Man who has at Heart the moſt neceſſary Reformation, and whoſe Parentage, Virtues, and Abilities render him at once the Dread of his Enemies, and the Idol of your Majeſty's moſt loving Subjects; nor can we forbear expreſſing our utmoſt Abhorrence of every Attempt to alienate from your Majeſty the Affections of any of your People, or draw them from their Duty.

We have only to add our ſincere and earneſt Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Reign may be proſperous; and that you may long live in the Affections of a free, united, and happy People.

[Signed by 343 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bridgemen, and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Henley upon Thames, has been preſented to the King by the Earl of Macclesfield, High Steward of the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bridgemen, and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Town and Pariſh of Henley upon Thames in the County of Oxford, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, beg Leave, with moſt grateful Hearts, to render to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Thanks for your Diſmiſſion of your late Miniſters, who, after having formed a moſt unnatural Coalition, being intirely regardleſs of private Property and the moſt undoubted Rights of Engliſhmen, ſecured by Charters and confirmed by Parliament, dared make the moſt violent and unprecedented Attempts to annihilate the greateſt and moſt opulent Trading Company in the Kingdom, and to ſeize their Rights and Property into their own Hands, and thereby to maintain themſelves in Power, in Defiance of the Crown, and to enſlave the Nation.

Permit us, Sire, to teſtify our Satisfaction at the Diſſolution of your late Parliament, whereby your faithful Subjects will have an Opportunity of electing ſuch Repreſentatives as will not delay the Buſineſs of the Public, nor endeavour to render ineffectual the Efforts of your preſent Miniſtry to ſave the Nation from that Deſtruction to which former Miniſters had nearly reduced it.

We at the ſame Time take the Liberty of expreſſing to your Majeſty our intire Confidence in your preſent Miniſters, and the Wiſdom wherewith your Councils are directed; and to aſſure you we ſhall ever eſteem it our greateſt Happineſs to exert our utmoſt Power in contributing to the Defence of your Majeſty's undoubted Prerogatives, and the Preſervation of our preſent moſt excellent Conſtitution.
